„Archaic Stone Tablet“ (= Tablet V)
vgl. Barton UPIX, 1, Pl. LXV.

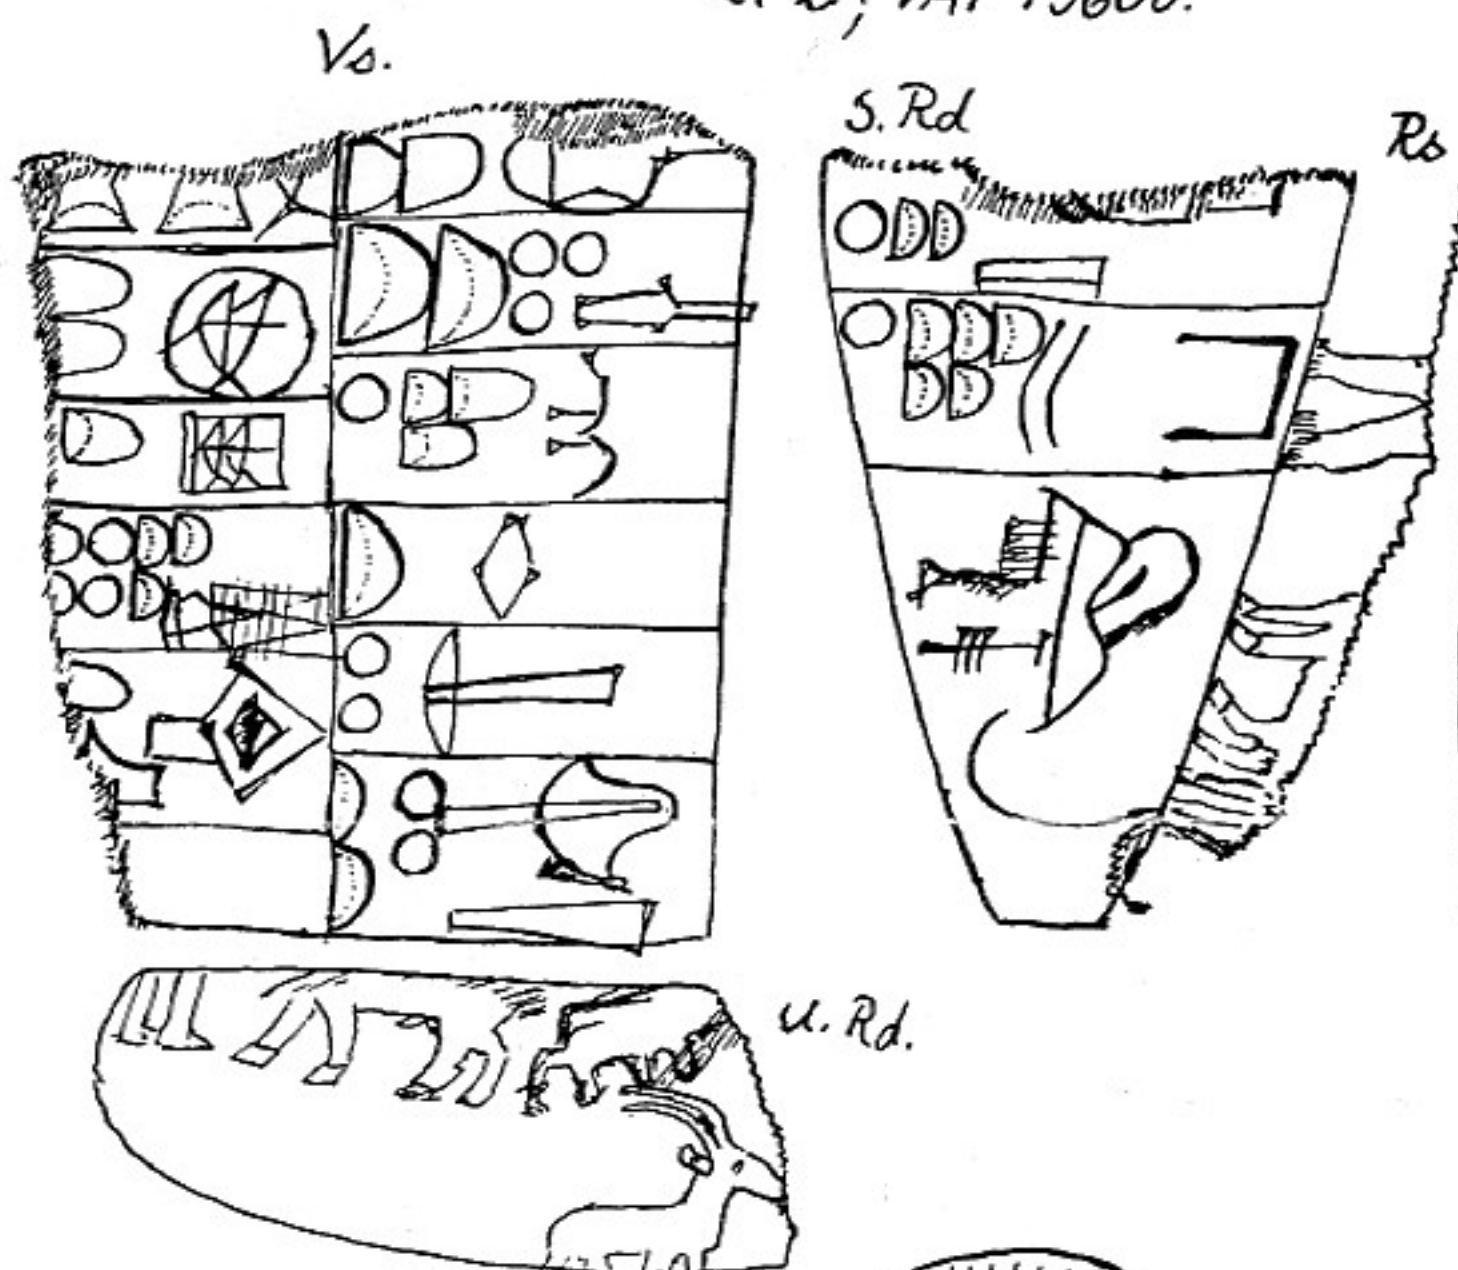

Nachträge.

337. vgl. Gressmann, Altorient. Bilder, II 52, Abb. 85. Vielleicht ist der Mensch als Tongebilde betrachtet.
523. Jud. Cyl. A 2, 2/16/18; 3, 27 (vgl. 5, 12) wird = „Schwester“ von = „dam“ unterschieden, s. a.a. 24, 10/12. In den Fara-T. ist sicher Abkürzung von „dam“. Dass bei Jud. = SAL+KU, bezweifle ich.
577. vgl. n. 630; 638.
653. Die Formen aus der Zeit Urubag sind vielleicht identisch mit n. 716. Wenn das zutreffend wäre, gehören nn. 650ff vielleicht auch zu nn. 714ff.
808. a-sagj ù a-sagj a-geštin, Institut. Bibl.
727. Dass = sa+ni, ist mir sehr zweifelhaft. Das erste Element dieses Zeichens wird in den Fara-Texten nie mit der für diese Zeit charakteristischen Form „sa“ geschrieben. Wie „ga“ scheint vielmehr auch dieses Zeichen einen Topf darzustellen, in welchem ein fettiges Produkt der Milch aufbewahrt wurde.
